

CROWN COUNSEL (LEGISLATIVE DRAFTER)
CROWN LAW OFFICE

The Crown Law Office, Rarotonga is seeking to employ a Crown Counsel (Legislative Drafter). This is a senior position. The successful applicant will be responsible for reviewing and drafting legislation in the form of Bills, Orders, Regulations, By-laws, and provide advice on legal issues arising out of the legislation. The appointee will report directly to the Solicitor-General and must:

- be qualified to practise law in the Cook Islands or any other Commonwealth country;
- have practical experience in Legislative drafting;
- have experience in the commercial/civil jurisdiction will be an advantage as well as an understanding of Cook Islands Laws;
- the ability to plan and prioritise effectively and demonstrate excellent oral and written communication skills.

The term of the appointment will be for a period of 2 years, with the possibility of renewal.

Expressions of interest together with a full CV are to be provided by 26th June 2009 to The Solicitor-General, P.O. Box 494, Rarotonga, COOK ISLANDS in an envelope marked “Vacancy 09/3”, or by email to dorothy@crownlaw.gov.ck .